

2015

Concert of the Ensemble opus21musikplus in Las Huelgas, Spain

On October 10th 2015 the Ensemble opus21musikplus will perform the newest composition of Konstantia Gourzi for choral schola, orthodox singer, lyra, violin, bass-clarinet and ney - commissioned by Patrimonio Nacional, Spain. Singer and lyra: Vassilis Agrokostas, violin: Miltiades Papastamou, bass-clarinet: Slava Cernavca, ney: Harris Lambrakis
Choral schola: Schola Antiqua
Conductor: Juan Carlos Asensio

Ensemble opus21musikplus at the Kassel Music Days 2015

On November 15th, 2015, at 7PM, the Ensemble opus21musikplus will perform at the Kassel opera house (Staatstheater). The ensemble will conclude the Kassel Music Days - which will also be the farewell concert for Dr Dieter Rexroth, the long-standing artistic director of the Kassel Music Days.

Programme:

Arnold Schönberg: Pierrot Lunaire plus Jazz

Based on an idea of Konstantia Gourzi

Voice: Claudia Barainsky

Piano and jazz improvisations: Marie Baptist

Conductor: Konstantia Gourzi

Gustav Mahler: Symphony Nr. 4, edited for soprano and ensemble by Klaus Simon (2007)

Voice: Stella Doufexis

Conductor: Konstantia Gourzi

Ensemble opus21musikplus at the Christoph and Stephan Kaske Foundation award ceremony

The Ensemble opus21musikplus will perform at the award ceremony of the Christoph and Stephan Kaske Foundation, on November 20th, 2015 in the Künstlerhaus in Munich. Programme to include works by Erkki-Sven Tüür and Carlos de Castellarnau.

April 23rd, 2015: World Premiere of Konstantia Gourzi's for four opus21musikplus musicians Miltiades Papastamou and Slava Cernavca will perform together with Sven Kacirek and Konstantia Gourzi, as part of the Bavarian Radio programme Kontrapunkt. They will give the world premiere of for four by Konstantia Gourzi, on April 23rd 2015 in the Goethe Institute in Munich. The programme will be produced in cooperation with the Goethe Institute and the NMZ.

opus21musikplus members guest with the KYKLOS Ensemble in Athens

Since the 2014/15 concert season, opus21musikplus artists Sofija Molchanova, Slava Cernavca and Tonko Huljev have been regular guests with the KYKLOS Ensemble in Athens.

